

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 2013

1. Today's gospel is one of great joy as Jesus reminds us that in God's eyes we can be the same as angels and true children of God. We pray that in our daily lives we follow the path so clearly laid for us by our Saviour and gain the salvation for which he was crucified.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

2. Throughout November we remember our dead in a very special way. Let us today celebrate the lives of our beloved ones and members of our community and pray that they may enjoy the blessings of God's compassion and love eternally.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

3. Today we celebrate the great work being undertaken by the CYC and its many volunteers in supporting and guiding the most vulnerable young people in our society. We pray that the Spirit continues to inspire them and that we as a community take every opportunity to support them in this great work of giving hope to our youth.

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

4. In a week when we are horrified to learn of the massacre of forty-five Christians in the Syrian Christian town of Sadad, we pray for all those who suffer persecution for their beliefs, that God's power may sustain them

We pray to the Lord R. Lord hear our prayer

5. We remember in silence our own personal intentions and the intentions of those who have asked for our prayers (Please pause for 5 seconds)
